

VESSEL STRIKES
ON ROCKY COASTSteamer Santa Rosa Pounds to Pieces Near Surf, Cal.

OFFICER AND THREE MEN LOST

Balance of Crew and Passengers Land Safely After Trying Ordeal.
Strong Wind Prevents Two Small Steamers From Landing Any Assistance and Doomed Vessel Swings Broadside to the Breakers.

Surf, Cal., July 8.—Four members of the crew of the wrecked steamer Santa Rosa of the Pacific Coast Steamship line were drowned in the surf while trying to escape from that vessel, which stranded near Point Arguillo, six miles south of here.

Second Officer E. Hewson and three members of the crew were the only ones drowned when she broke up, according to latest advices received at the Pacific Coast Steamship company's office at San Francisco. These men lost their lives while trying to put a line ashore.

Removal of the passengers and crew began at 5:45 p. m. and was completed at 10:20. A special train left Honda, Cal., for Los Angeles at 11 p. m. There was no suffering among the passengers.

The doom of the steamer was sealed when a rising wind stirred a high sea and forced the abandonment of efforts to transfer the passengers of the Santa Rosa to the steam schooner Centralla, which, with the schooner Helen Drew, had previously made abortive efforts to float her.

Up to that time there had been no apprehension of danger among officers and crew of the stranded vessel. It was thought she could be floated easily. In fact Captain Paria answered wireless inquiries with the statement that the ship apparently was lying easily and would be floated at the crest of the tide.

But as the afternoon wore on danger rapidly increased and by nightfall it became certain that desperate efforts would be necessary to save any of the ship's company.

Swings Broadside to Breakers.

Early in the day the Centalla and Helen P. Drew had passed hawvers to the Santa Rosa, but the rising wind was too strong for their limited horse power and at dusk the Santa Rosa swung broadside to the breakers.

Immediately she began to break up.
The crash of breaking timbers and overstrained steel could be heard by the wireless men at Port Arguillo.

The first lifeboat was launched at dark, after every effort had been made to establish boat communication with the Centalla.

The shore line lay only 300 feet from the broken ship, but the little craft could not make it. It bobbed like a cork on the crest of the breakers and the next instant was submerged. There were sixteen persons in this boat, eleven passengers and five of the crew.

Another boat was launched by the frantic people aboard the steamer. It met the same fate. There were about nineteen persons in this boat. All were bruised and some of them were unconscious when dragged out of the surf.

Scores of persons, ranchers from the vicinity of this place, railroad laborers and men from the wireless station and lighthouse, stood upon the shore helpless.

In the offing, just outside the fatal breaker line, the schooners Centalla and Helen P. Drew and the oil ship Argyle lay, their decks lined with their crews, equally helpless to aid.

This is probably the bleakest and most desolate spot on the coast south of San Francisco. The Shriner train wreck in May, 1907, occurred within a few hundred yards of the point where the Santa Rosa struck.

The steamer Santa Rosa sailed from San Francisco carrying 173 first cabin and 27 second class passengers and a crew of 85 men.

LIMITATION LAW IS VALID

Judge's Decision Cuts Number of Saloon Licenses in Iowa.

Des Moines, July 8.—By an opinion handed down by Judge De Graff of the equity division of the district court the city council is restrained from issuing saloon permits to more than eighty-six saloons in the city, thereby knocking out seven saloons in Des Moines.

Judge De Graff upheld the validity of the Moon law and his ruling has an important bearing over the state, as other city councils have issued licenses in excess of ten to every 10,000 inhabitants.

DONKEY AND ELEPHANT RACE

Speed Contest to White House as Forecast of 1912 Election.

New York, July 8.—A donkey and an elephant started from Coney Island in a race for the White House, intended to forecast to the world generally the result of the election in 1912.

Several hundred followers of Democracy are pinning their faith to the donkey, while the elephant has no fewer well wishers from the Republican camp.

ACTED AS ATTORNEY GENERAL

Special House Committee Summons Milton D. Purdy to Washington Next Tuesday to Reply to the Statement of George H. Earle, Jr., That the Latter Laid Before Him Evidence Showing Conspiracy in Violation of the Anti-Trust Law.

Washington, July 8.—Judge Milton D. Purdy, one of the "trust busters" of the Roosevelt administration, later appointed to the federal bench in Minneapolis and now practicing law in Minneapolis, has been requested to appear before the house special committee investigating the American Sugar Refining company and the sugar industry generally.

Judge Purdy was acting attorney general in the interim between the promotion of Justice Moody to the supreme court bench and the appointment of Attorney General Bonaparte.

He will appear before the committee next Tuesday, when it resumes meetings, and will be asked about the statement made recently before the committee by George H. Earle, Jr., receiver of the Real Estate Trust company of Philadelphia, that Earle laid before Judge Purdy when the latter was acting attorney general evidence that showed the failure of the trust company, the suicide of its president and the closing of the Pennsylvania sugar refinery were direct results of a conspiracy in violation of the antitrust law, for which the American Sugar Refining company's officials were responsible.

Mr. Earle said when he gave this evidence to Mr. Purdy the latter exclaimed, "That is just the kind of a case the government wants. We will put them in jail."

Earle told the committee Attorney General Purdy afterward took no action in the case. Attorney General Bonaparte later refused to take up the matter and advised President Roosevelt there was no cause for action.

The committee wants to know from Judge Purdy why nothing was done.

SPEAKS AT ATLANTIC CITY

President Taft Addresses Christian Endeavor Convention.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 8.—Taking as the central thought of his talk to 10,000 Endeavorers in one of two crowded auditoriums on the convention pier President Taft quoted a section of the resolutions adopted at the St. Paul convention of the organization two years ago. Mr. Taft spoke on the advisability of making conditions between nations such that war will be improbable. The last convention adopted a strong platform on this subject.

Christian Endeavorers of the Northwest joined in a big demonstration for the president when he entered and left the hall. This is the first time a chief executive has visited this city since the time of President Grant and the streets near the convention hall were packed.

In his speech President Taft declared that the negotiations for the arbitration treaty between Great Britain and the United States have reached such a stage that there is no doubt as to the signing of the pact.

LIVELY SESSION PROBABLE

Problems Accumulating for Educational Convention.

San Francisco, July 8.—Bylaws and proposed amendments to the constitution of the National Educational association, embodied in a committee report, and a document headed "Democracy or Oligarchy," and telling what some of the so called "insurgent" members think about this report found public circulation almost simultaneously here. The two documents were said to forecast the lively session which the convention may expect annual meeting next Thursday.

Compared with three years ago, the sides agreed, the election of a president becomes a minor item. "I was yesterday as Mrs. Eliza Frazar," said one who has refused to run again and his fight is now expected on the report of the nominating committee.

It is likely an effort may be made to change the annual meeting of the national council from midwinter to synchronize with the meetings of the convention to save expense. And a move may be made to make its membership directly elective.

Rancher Drowns Himself.

Miles City, Mont., July 8.—Fred Schmidt, residing about twenty miles from Miles City, committed suicide by drowning himself in a reservoir near his house. He was worth about $30,000. He recently sold his ranch for $17,000, but paid $2,750 to the purchaser to call off the dog.

LAFAYETTE YOUNG.

Iowa Editor Will Again Be a Candidate for Senator.

YOUNG WANTS TOGA AGAIN.

Des Moines Editor Says He Is Still in the Fight.

Spirit Lake, Ia., July 8.—Lafayette Young has been spending a few days here at Krandall's Lodge, on the north shore of Spirit lake, with his son Harry Young, who is spending the summer here. Mr. Young succeeded in a first fishing trip in landing a couple of good sized pike and was well satisfied.
He was visited by a party of Spirit Lake "boosters."

In speaking of politics Senator Young intimated that he will be a candidate for United States senator in the next primaries.

"I'm still in the fight," said Mr.
Young, "and I believe I would make a good senator for the people."

IRISHMEN ACCLAIM
BRITISH RULERSKing George and Queen Mary Visit Emerald Isle.

Dublin, July 8.—The royal yacht Victoria and Albert, with King George and Queen Mary and the Prince of Wales and Princess Mary on board, anchored in Kingston harbor. Every available point along the breakwater and on the landing stages was crowded with cheering Dubliners, who on seeing the king and Prince of Wales on the bridge of the yacht burst forth singing the national anthem. The first division of the home fleet, anchored just outside the harbor, also fired salutes.

When they came ashore they were received by the lord lieutenant of Ireland and driven in state carriages to the castle where they are to reside during their stay. A number of state functions are to take place in the royal residence in the next few days, including dinners, a levee, a court reception and a chapter of the order of St. Patrick. The old building, dating from early in the thirteenth century, is not very imposing in appearance, but is commodious and well suited for court ceremonies.

Sunday their majesties will attend services at St. Patrick's cathedral and Monday the king will inspect the royal Irish constabulary in Phoenix park, where he will hold a review of troops and present some of the regiments with new colors.

Dublin looked her best in her gala decorations and enthusiastic crowds paraded the streets.

JOHN W. GATES IMPROVING

Physician Now Looks for His Early Recovery.

Paris, July 8.—The physician in attendance upon John W. Gates, the American financier, said that his patient is on the mend and will continue so. While the illness of Mr. Gates is serious and requires careful attention, he added, it would be an exaggeration to say that his condition is alarming, although there certainly was a moment when the nephritis from which he is suffering caused anxiety.

Congressman Mitchell Dead.

Lawrence, Kan., July 8.—Representative Alexander C. Mitchell of the Second Kansas district died at his home here following a long illness.
Mr. Mitchell was elected to the house of representatives last year on a progressive Republican platform, defeating Representative Charles F. Scott, "regular Republican."

Indiana Lumberman Is Held.

Indianapolis, July 8.—Harry C.
Searce of Mooresville, Ind., secretary of the Retail Lumber Dealers' association of Indiana and one of the fourteen men indicted by the federal grand jury in Chicago on June 23, was arrested and gave bond of $2,000 for his appearance in the federal court in Chicago Sept. 20. Searce denies that he had any knowledge of a conspiracy in restraint of trade as charged in the indictment.

HOW TO SAVE
MINERS' LIVES.Public Demonstration to Be Held at Pittsburg.

PRESIDENT WILL BE THERE.

Twenty to Thirty Thousand Miners Expected to Be Present—Exhibition by Trained First Aid and Rescue Corps.

In line with its effort to reduce the number of deaths in the coal mines of the United States, the bureau of mines will hold a national miners' life saving demonstration on Sept. 16 in Arsenal park, Pittsburg. President Taft, Secretary of the Interior Fisher and Dr. Joseph A. Holmes, director of the bureau of mines, will attend and speak to the miners. The bureau of mines will have the co-operation of the Pittsburg Coal Operators' association and the American Red Cross. It is expected that between 20,000 and 30,000 miners will attend and that many of the important coal companies will send their trained first aid and rescue corps to take part in the exhibition. Already a number of teams have entered and are in training for the event, which promises to be the most important gathering of miners ever assembled.

Arsenal park is the site of the testing station of the bureau of mines, and the experts of the bureau are busy arranging for a unique program. The arrangements for the first demonstration are in the hands of H. M. Wilson, engineer in charge of the bureau of mines, Pittsburg. Major Charles Lynch, medical corps, U. S. A., in charge of the first aid department of the Red Cross, and Dr. M. E. Shields of Scranton, Pa., both of whom are pioneers in this movement, are assisting. The first aid to the injured work will be one of the features of the entire day. The teams from the various coal mines will not contest, but will give exhibitions of their skill in bringing injured miners from the mines and binding the wounds and fractures. Many of these teams have been instructed in first aid by the surgeons of the American Red Cross and also by the rescue corps of the bureau of mines.

Thousands Injured Yearly.

Between 5,000 to 8,000 miners are injured each year in the United States, some so seriously that they die perhaps months afterward, and others are so maimed that they are cripples for life. The work of the first aid to the injured teams is to give the proper emergency treatment so that injuries will be lessened in seriousness and some of the fatalities perhaps avoided. In the anthracite region of Pennsylvania the first aid work has been highly developed through the good work of the American Red Cross, and many lives have been saved through the prompt and efficient work of the members of the various corps. This movement has become so popular in the anthracite region that annual field contests between the teams are held each year in the presence of thousands of spectators. Prizes are given to the winners by the American Red Cross, and the operators join in with contributions of badges and cups. Following the example of the anthracite region and directly as the result of the instructions in first aid to the injured and in the helmet rescue work being introduced in all parts of the United States by the rescue corps and stations of the bureau of mines, teams have recently been organized in the bituminous mining districts throughout the country. The members of these teams are eager to show their skill and will take part in the exhibition.

Real Explosions.

In addition to the exhibition by the first aid teams the miners will witness gas and coal dust explosions in miniature, which will be staged in the great explosives gallery of the bureau of mines. In Arsenal park there will also be a temporary gallery, which will resemble a coal mine. This will be placed at the bottom of a natural amphitheater, giving a clear view to thousands of persons. There will be a gas explosion in this play mine.
Miners will be entombed, and one of the government rescue corps in oxygen helmet will enter and save the men.
One side of the miniature mine will be open its entire length in order that the onlookers may witness everything that happens in an underground horror except the loss of life. The famous oxygen helmets that members of the rescue corps of the bureau wear and which have been instrumental in saving a number of lives will be on exhibition and explained to the miners. The oxygen reviving apparatus, which automatically takes the poisonous gases from the lungs of an asphyxiated miner and fills them with oxygen will also be demonstrated.
This apparatus has already brought back to consciousness a number of miners given up as dead.

The Shadow.

Why is a man's shadow like a false friend? Because it follows him only in sunshine.

Servants In China.

In China you can have a dozen servants for a total of less than $100 a month. And they won't steal anything, they will do their work well and they will stay after they have learned. In the Celestial empire there is no servant problem to vex the housewife's soul, but there are enough other problems to make up for it.
Good water is one; sanitary arrangements are about forty-one.

Charged With Conspiracy.

LUMBERMAN UNDER ARREST

Officer of Colorado-Wyoming Association Indicted by Illinois Jury.

Denver, July 8.—Louis I. Hellman, secretary of the Colorado-Wyoming Retail Lumber Dealers' association, was arrested on an indictment returned by the federal grand jury of Northern Illinois. Conspiracy to interfere with interstate trade is the specific charge.

Hellman was held in $5,000 bonds at the request of Assistant United States Attorney Disman.

It is said that more than 150 retail lumbermen in Colorado and Wyoming will be involved in the action instituted by United States Attorney Sims of Chicago against the so called lumber trust, alleged to be composed of retail dealers throughout the United States.

TERRIFIC STORM
STRIKES WHEELINGHigh Wind Accompanied by Almost a Cloudburst.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 8.—Two deaths, the wrecking of five motor boats on the Ohio river and a narrow escape from destruction of the Pittsburg-Cincinnati packet Queen City was caused by a severe storm that broke over this city. The terrific wind was accompanied by almost a cloudburst.

The Queen City, under the suspension bridge, was torn from her moorings and blown ashore, where she crashed into and destroyed five gasoline launches anchored at the Ohio Valley Yacht club's landing. The steamboat was not damaged.

On the Ohio side of the river, near Bridgeport, Fred Young, a mill worker, was feeding his pigs when a small run overflowed almost in an instant and carried Young and pigs in a violent torrent down the hillside into Bridgeport. Young was dead when his body was found, but the pigs were alive.

Dorothy Maxwell, aged thirteen, while bathing, was blown out in midstream by the wind and drowned before help could reach her.

HEAT WAVE APPEARS BROKEN

Showers Bring Relief to Washington and Baltimore.

Washington, July 8.—Thunder showers in Virginia, Maryland and Southern Pennsylvania broke the heat wave, bringing relief to Washington and Baltimore, the last of the large cities to be released from the torrid grip in which they had been held since last Sunday. The maximum temperature of 95 in Washington was quickly lowered to 69 when the storm broke, while in Baltimore the mercury descended from 92 to 70. Continued showers are promised in the Atlantic and Gulf states, throughout the Ohio valley and in the Rocky mountains.

MUCH COOLER IN NEW YORK

Twenty-nine Deaths on Last Day of Hot Spell.

New York, July 8.—The predicted cool wave arrived and for the first time in nearly a week a night's comfortable sleep was possible. The temperature shot down with gratifying abruptness to degrees within an hour and dropped to 72.

The day, however, was prolific in fatalities. Twenty-nine deaths were recorded from the effects of the heat in metropolitan territory, bringing the aggregate for the six days up to a total well over 150.

TWENTY-FIVE MORE DEATHS

Return of Hot Weather Is Predicted for Chicago.

Chicago, July 8.—A return of the death dealing heat which already has claimed 195 victims in Chicago is predicted by the weather forecaster.

Although the mercury did not rise above 80 degrees twenty-five deaths were reported as a direct result of the heat. The number of burial permits issued for babies was forty-four, the largest number yet recorded in one day.

Esther Cleveland.

Esther Cleveland, born at the White House, was the first offspring of a president to possess that honor.

ROADS INCREASE EARNINGS

Gross Receipts of Iowa Lines $6,000-000 Greater Than in 1910.

Des Moines, July 8.—Steam roads operating in Iowa increased their gross earnings practically $6,000,000 during 1910, according to a statement issued by the state executive council. The figures in this statement will be used by the council when it meets next Monday for the purpose of assessing the railroad companies.

The net earnings are lower by $1-000,000, due to heavy expenditures within the state.

Interurban companies show an increase in gross earnings amounting to more than $200,000. No interurban company reports a net loss.

Jolt From Wagon Fatal to Boy.

Eau Claire, Wis., July 8.—Orval Johnson, a boy of fifteen, living near the city limits, fell off his heavily loaded milk wagon, the wheels of which passed over his chest, inflicting injuries from which he died while being taken to the hospital. He was jolted from the wagon by striking a plank on a bridge.

Deficiency Bill Passes Senate.

Washington, July 8.—The deficiency appropriation bill, carrying $213,031 for necessary expenses of congress and the government departments, passed the senate.

Wife Murderer Dies.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., July 8.—Guy Sells, who murdered his wife and fatally wounded himself after breaking into her apartments, is dead. Sells had repeatedly threatened his wife's life. He went to a hardware store and purchased a revolver, saying that he wished to kill a dog. From there he went directly to the house where the shooting occurred.

FOND OF ELECTIONS.

In Switzerland They Select Even Gravediggers by Ballot.

According to Professor F. F. Roget of Geneva, the Swiss have the greatest political intelligence in the world today.

"Every citizen of a canton is a Swiss citizen," says Professor Roget. "One must become a member of some local commune to become naturalized and in order to do so must be accepted by the local communal council."

"Every male Swiss citizen is an elector from the age of twenty, there being no property qualification. Every Swiss is a soldier and every soldier an elector. The federal elector may vote wherever he may happen to be, guarantees being taken that he votes only once."

"The cantons are the political units, and no elector may exercise political rights in more than one canton. On moving from one locality to another the Swiss must wait three months before he may exercise the franchise in his new neighborhood."

Professor Roget declares that "every collective authority in Switzerland is elected."

"The foreigner," he states, "is often surprised to see in a Swiss newspaper on a Monday the results of all kinds of elections on the Sunday. If he had gone into a polling booth on the Sunday he would have found in this corner a clerk at a desk, at which the elector would vote for the local schoolmaster."

"In another corner would be a desk at which he would vote for the local judge, in another part of the same room he would vote for the local gravedigger, and so on through a whole series of officials, all of whom are popularly elected."

"The result of this training is that the political intelligence of the Swiss is extremely developed, and that he thoroughly understands what he is voting about at home in his native country, and that when he goes abroad he finds it very easy to understand and to take part in any political movements among which he may find himself."— Exchange.

A Sinecure.

General Horatio C. King, on one occasion narrating some war memories, said:

"We suffered many hardships on both sides, but the poor, brave Confederates suffered most. I remember a grizzled old colored man who at the outbreak of the Spanish war applied for a place as an army cook."

"What experience have you had?"
the old fellow was asked.

"I was cook, sah, for a Confederate regiment in sixty-fo', he answered—that is, sah, I had the position of cook, but, to tell the truth, I didn't work at it."

"Why not?"

"There wasn't nothin' to cook, sah."

TWO DISTRICT— ONE DELIVERY

Uncle Sam Cuts Expenses by Curtailing One Substitute Here During Vacation Periods

A CHANGE IN MAIL SCHEDULE

One Mail Delivery a Day on the Routes of City Carriers 4 and 6 During Coming Week

The policy of the postoffice department at Washington is to curtail mail deliveries during the vacation periods of the carriers which are taken advantage of during the hot season and in accordance with that order the service in the mill district and other portions of the territory served by Carl Brockway, carrier 4, and Southeast Brainerd and other portions of the territory served by Frank Russell, carrier 6, will be reduced to one delivery a day during the coming week, beginning Monday. This service will be given these two districts for 30 days, the same as last year but only one week of the four will be taken at the present time. The orders for this curtailment comes from department headquarters and is supposed to be in line with the retrenchment advocated in all branches of the postal system, as it saves the pay of one substitute for 30 days and the same order is effective in other cities of the United States.

The mill district will be served in the forenoon and Southeast Brainerd in the afternoon.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to our friends and neighbors who were so kind and generous in their assistance during the illness and death of our beloved brother.

Mrs. William Peterson, and Family.

Railroads and Life Insurance.

The extent to which life insurance funds have backed up the transportation industry is surely not a matter for regret. American railroads are the backbone of American industrial progress. Had the stream of life insurance investments been deflected in another direction, had the companies invested more largely in mortgage loans, which it might have been to their advantage to do if they had been smaller and less centralized institutions, our railroad development would not have been what it is today and the name of the "Great American desert" would have been still on the map. Railroads might almost be described as the byproducts of old line life insurance.—Thomas Scanlon in Moody's Magazine.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Scolding.

Scolding is mostly a habit. It is often the result of nervousness and an irritable condition of both mind and body. A person is tried or annoyed at once trivial cause and forthwith commences finding fault with everything and everybody within reach. Scolding is a habit very easily formed. It is an unreasoning and unreasonable habit. Persons who once get into the way of scolding always find something to scold about. If there is nothing else they begin scolding at the mere absence of anything to scold at. It is an extremely disagreeable habit. It is contagious. Once introduced into a family it is pretty certain in a short time to affect all the members.—Exchange.

Escaped With His Life

"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes H. B. Martin, Port Harrison, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything, I could hear of, for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so, and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure." Its positively guaranteed for coughs, colds, and all bronchial affections. 50c & $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists. tsw

NOT INSANE, BUT OLD

Aged Gentleman From Garrison, Examined at to His Sanity, Is Pronounced Sane

August Smith, a man whose head has passed 84 summers of earth's pilgrimage, was brought to this city yesterday from Garrison, Ky.—J. H. Frances and Charles Wonderly, and was examined by Drs. Camp and Sykora and Judge of Probate J. T. Sanborn, regarding his sanity.

The old gentleman seemed bright and keen for a man of his age and the examination by the court and medical experts was not hastily done.

The main allegation against the old gentleman was that at times he became illudious, the charge being made by his own relatives, more than by others. Upon examination it was found that for a long time he had lived by himself, and when taken to live with others he would imagine that some one was poisoning his food. But as illusions are incident to senility, the court came to the conclusion that the old gentleman was merely passing through the infirmities which old age brings upon all who experience it.

The doctors and the judge of probate thought the best thing to be done was to send him back home again, which was done.

The old gentleman has quite a few children living at Mille Lacs lake, and one of the gentlemen witnessing the examination said: "The old gentleman merely requires from his own kith and kin what his children may sometime need when old age shall have crept upon them—a little extra care, and not the solitude of an insane asylum."

IN HOT WEATHER

Pertinent Pointers to Be Observed During the Extremely Hot Weather

Many articles of "What to Do in Hot Weather," are going the rounds, but here is one as good as is going. "Muscular exercise—as little as possible. Rest and sleep as much as possible. Digestible foods—only a sufficient quantity. Indigestible foods—sufficient for bulk. Cold drinks—with care and moderation as to temperature and quantity. Hot sun—a minimum amount. Shade—a maximum amount. Air in motion—enough for comfort. Cold baths—not over done. Clothing—light shades, light weight and of cloth which does not readily hold air among its fibers."

The writer continues: "In this day when it is becoming more apparent that mind is a thing wholly separate and apart from the body, we must not fail to add to the above prescription the postscript, that he who would keep at his coolest must avoid those reactions of the brain which would make him 'stew,' 'grow hot under the collar' or 'boil over,' no matter what the provocative stimulus."

Doctors in Russia.

Dr. Ralph Thompson, in Medical Europe, states that "in Russia nobody ever asks a physician the amount of his bill. It is universally understood that a gentleman pays his doctor a fair sum—such a sum as he can afford to pay within the limits of his income and his sense of generosity. The Russian mind cannot conceive how a man engaged in the holy pursuit of saving life and alleviating suffering can put a price on his services." After this it is not surprising to learn from the same authority that Russia is the only European country of importance where the medical profession is not overcrowded.

Sabbath and Sunday.

The observance of the Sabbath by the Jews is first mentioned after the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt, but no direct evidence of its being kept in patriarchal times is to be found in the Pentateuch. The early Christian church observed the first day of the week in commemoration of the resurrection of Christ, and this gradually took the place among Christians of the Jewish Sabbath. The very earliest law by which the observance of the first day of the week was ordained is the edict of the Emperor Constantine, A. D. 321.—New York American.

STATE FAIR ATTRACTION

Spectacular Automobile Races will be a Feature at the Coming State Fair

Hamline, Minn., July 8, 1911.—Spectacular racing and exhibitions are now assured for the two days automobile meet scheduled for Friday and Saturday of the Minnesota state fair week, Sept. 4-9th. A number of the world's greatest drivers and fastest machines have been contracted for and will furnish all necessary thrills.

Bob Burman, recently crowned speed king of the world, will be the star feature of the meet. Indianapolis was the scene of this speed coronation. In that city on the occasion of the recent automobile meet Burman was presented with the world's speed crown valued at $10,000. He is admittedly champion of the world, having driven his 200 H. P. Blitzen Benz to the world's record of 25.40 seconds over a straightaway course at Palm Beach, Fla.

It is hard to appreciate this rate of speed as it is faster than any other animate or inanimate object ever went except a bullet. To make this record Burman had to cover 207 feet per second for the entire distance almost faster than the action of the human mind.

Burman is also the holder of the world's straightaway kilometer record, time 15.4 seconds; the world's two mile straightaway record, 51.21 seconds; the world's speedway record for one mile, one kilometre and one-half mile and on the Fourth of July he proved up on his title by taking from De Palma the world's mile record over a circular track. This feat was performed at the Brighton Beach Motordrome, New York, where Burman made the circuit of the mile track in 48.72 seconds, one-fifth of a second faster than De Palma's record in a Fiat car made last year at Syracuse. At Brighton Beach Burman also won the Remey Bassard trophy by taking two straight heats of three miles each with the Benz car.

In addition to "Wild Bob" Burman, Superintendent Warner announces that he has closed a contract for the appearance at the fair of Billy Nipper, formerly a member of the champion Chalmers team. This demon driver will perform in a 200 H. P. Ganetty-Mercedes, admitted to be the second fastest car in the world, having been driven a kilometre in Europe at the rate of 183 miles an hour.

Ralph De Palmer is another one of the famous drivers who have been secured for the state fair meet and competition between him and Burman will furnish the greatest excitement. A number of other drivers and cars will be entered in the different races which will make up the two day's program. In addition to the races, efforts will be made to lower the world's circular track records and it seems almost certain that these efforts will be successful.

Sensitive Meredith.

The house at 17 Red Lion square, W. C. London, was once occupied by William Morris, Burne-Jones and Dante Gabriel Rossetti. George Meredith in the days of his extreme poverty joined with those other three young men in their bachelor establishment. The state of his boots, we are told by one of the biographers, at length aroused the solicitude of his fellow tenants, who one night stealthily replaced them by a new pair. But Meredith was so much piqued by what was meant in all kindness that he withdrew from the fellowship the next day.—London News.

A Political Placard.

John B. Thompson of Kentucky, who served in both houses of congress, was a master of the art of ridicule. Here is his characterization of the contempt in which party platforms are held after elections:

"The two or three last platform presidents we have had when they got in the car of state and safely seated all around everywhere you could see, 'Do not stand on the platform when the cars are in motion.'—McClure's Magazine.

Others Like Her.

Business Man (explaining)—When they say "money is easy" they mean simply that supply is greater than the demand. His Wife—Goodness! I shouldn't think such a thing possible.—Boston Transcript.

Better in an Argument.

Bloobs—A woman can generally hit the nail on the head. Slobbs—Yes, but generally more successfully with an argument than with a hammer.—Philadelphia Record.

HOMES AT THE LAKES

Brainerd Citizens Are Fast Acquiring Summer Places at the Many Lakes

During the last two or three years quite a trend has been made by the several scores of the people of the city toward the lakes during the heated summer months. Slowly there are being placed by the lake shore of many of the beautiful lakes in the county dozens of summer cottages, whose shelter and cooling breezes allure many of the men to spend the week end, while the families spend all the time there. If the list were printed of all who possess summer cottages on the various lakes from here to Walker, and those who have recently purchased shore property upon which to build others, and also those who are building the number would be larger than we think.

Very few of our citizens realize that Crow Wing county possesses in its topography some of the largest and prettiest lakes of all the counties in the state; but it is true, nevertheless. One of our citizens, who left yesterday with his family to enjoy a cottage which he has built within the last few weeks, said: "But very few people realize that it is as good an investment as one can make. The people of the twin cities, as never before, are just waking up to the lake property we have in this county and it will not be long before the county gets the name for offering great fishing, hunting and other lake privileges, and it will allure hundreds of folks from the large cities."

Some of our enterprising citizens have erected some cottages on the lake shores and find no difficulty in renting them during the season. Some of our citizens who intend to build, had better awake to the fact that the suitable lake property for summer cottages is going.

A JACK OF ALL TRADES.

Monotony Will Never Kill England's Postmaster General.

The British postmaster general is what Londoners call a universal provider, a regular department store of public functions.

He will insure your life, give you a little bank to board your pennies in, take care of your savings, sell you an annuity, a postal order or a foreign draft, invest your spare capital in a nice little government bond and pay a weekly pension to your aged mother or aunt.

He carries letters and other mail matter, transmits telegrams, cablegrams and wireless messages, maintains an enormous staff of messenger boys and conducts an express company business for every sort of parcel, from a halfpenny packet up to shipments of eggs, dressed poultry and fresh fish.

He collects all the worn copper coins for the British treasury. He has factories for making his supplies and an electric central station of his own in London for lighting his offices, sending the current through his cable ducts. He will sell you a license for a dog, a carriage, a motorcar or a family coat of arms, or he will put in your telephone and take care of your helios.

At a dinner the other night the postmaster general confessed that he sometimes doubted whether he had any human personality at all. When he thought of his own functions, he said, he was appalled by them. In his official capacity he is responsible for more property than anybody else in the United Kingdom, employs far more people than any individual or corporation prosecutes more malefactors every day than the public prosecutor and sends out every week more apologies for himself and explanations of his actions than all the rest of the British population combined.—Telephone Review.

HOBBLED SCARECROW.

New Jersey Farmer's Idea Meets With Signal Success.

Amos Kidder, a New Jersey farmer, is boasting of a prosperous crop of sweet corn this season. Early in the spring he determined to try a new method of keeping birds from his field and erected in the middle of his five-acre patch of newly planted corn a woman scarecrow—the first and only woman in a multitude of men scarecrows in these parts. He dressed her in hobbie skirt style.

The crows, which are proving a veritable plague to other farmers, were evidently neither accustomed to Kidder's woman of fashion nor attracted by her, for with aesthetic eye and a fine sense of discrimination they passed Kidder's field by and favored the corn seed of his neighbors. Kidder has been roundly criticised by various women's clubs in this section for his irreverent and satirical use of feminine fashions.

FINE NATATORIUM AND BATHS

Being Constructed by George Ridley Will Soon be Ready for Use

In about two weeks the fine gymnasium and bath rooms, to be run by George Ridley, on Front street, will be open. A group of workmen are busy putting on the finishing touches, and when completed, will be equal in accommodations to most of those in the big cities.

The swimming pool, 40 by 25 feet, is a most attractive looking plunging place, and all that they are waiting for now is sufficient time for it to dry before using. The swimming pool will be a boon to parents who are desirous of having their children know how to swim, but fear their practicing in the Mississippi. A competent swimming teacher will always be on hand to instruct, and altogether it will prove a boon for those who delight in swimming.

The gymnasium, unfinished as it is, 80 by 25 feet, looks, and is, large enough for any indoor athletic training one wishes for. A fine set of requisites of a modern gymnasium are on the way to Brainerd, to suit the fastidious athletic taste of all.

Russian, Turkish and shower baths will be in vogue, together with a fine bake oven, for the ill that flesh is heir to. No longer will the sufferers have to go to Indiana or Duluth or Chaska for mud baths or baking ovens to force the poisons out of the body, but they can be had in Brainerd.

About sixty lockers are in position and are modern in every way. The gymnasium occupies the top floor and the bath rooms and swimming pool, the large basement beneath, which will be sufficiently lighted, and the only way of entrance to the gymnasium will be via the bath rooms.

Like other places of its kind, there will be the ladies day set apart, when competent lady teachers will be there to give instructions.

Old Salts.

Another couple was about to be launched on the sea of matrimony. "They don't seem a bit afraid," some one back in the crowd observed. "And why should they?" asked the gentleman next. "They've both been across several times"—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Canals in England.

Canals in England date back to an early period, for the Romans built two in Lincolnshire—the Foss dike, forty miles long and still navigable, and the Caer dike. The first British made canal was constructed in 1134 by Henry I. and joined the Trent to the Witham. It was toward the end of the eighteenth century that the greatest amount of energy was expended in the building of canals, mainly due to the Duke of Bridgewater and the skill of his engineer, James Brindley. In the last decade of that century a canal mania reigned.

The City of the Dove.

When mighty Amru went to conquer Egypt he camped on the east bank of the Nile opposite Memphis, that great twenty miles long capital of mud bricks whose western verge was the pyramids and whose mud brick houses have all vanished. Amru crushed the Egyptians and came back to get his camp to move over and occupy Memphis. A dove had built in the folds near the top of his tent. Blood bathed Amru, the ruthless, would not let her be disturbed. A new city started about his tents. It grew northward along the Nile. It is today Cairo. Memphis is only a name.

His Flag Was Up.

When the crowd assembled for their game of ball Johnnie, the pitcher, was missing. Jimmie was sent to investigate. "Is Johnnie at home?" asked Jimmie of the sister who answered his knock. "Course," answered the sister. "Don't you see his shirt on the line?"—Success Magazine.

Getting Back.

"Gee, no!" exclaimed the pretty cash girl. "I don't want nothin' to do with you. I wouldn't marry you if you was the last man on earth. Is that plain enough English for you?"

"It is certainly plain enough," said the mortified bookkeeper. "But it isn't English."—Chicago Tribune.

Thackeray's Kindness of Heart.

Thackeray was the gentlest satirist that ever lived. As editor of the Cornhill he could hardly bring himself to reject a manuscript for fear of hurting his would-be contributors. The story of his actually paying for contributions that he never printed in order to conceal the fact that he had rejected them may be true or false. We do not remember exactly how the evidence points. But even if it be a story, such stories are not told of men made of the stern stuff of the Thackerays. Commonly unknown—London Saturday Review.

THE SPIRAL NEBULAE.

One of the Terrifying and Mysterious Forces of Space.

The most stupendous manifestations of force of which we have any knowledge are presented by the spiral nebulae, whose mysterious and terrifying forms were first clearly revealed by the Lick observatory photographs made in 1898-1900 by the late Professor James E. Keeler. The heavens are full of them—they exist by thousands—and as astronomical photography is brought to greater perfection their amazing shapes tend more and more to upset all former ideas concerning the processes of creation and destruction going on in the interstellar spaces. They affect in an equal degree all theories about the origin and ultimate fate of our own solar system.

Who would imagine on looking up at the starry heavens some quiet night that the earth is like a person lost in the midst of the whirling wheels and spinning shafts of some enormous mill or machine room, where running bolts, whirling spindles, clamping pistons, grinding coars, gyrating governors, dizzying flywheels and leaping rods confuse the eye and the mind and paralyze the limbs with the terror of impending annihilation? We are not aware of this startling situation because, while we see the stars, we do not see what is among the stars. The spinning machinery of the universe is revealed only in photographs, and as far as our senses are concerned it performs its functions with a silence which to the imagination becomes a part of the horror of space.

These cosmic wheels spin with incalculable velocity, but the span of human life is but a second of time in comparison with their periods. If we could magnify time so that a second would become a century, then an hour would be equivalent to 360,000 years, and the true aspect of the spiral nebulae would burst upon our astonished senses.—Garrett P. Serviss in New York American.

THE BLANKET FISH.

This Dreaded Sea Monster Wraps Its Body Around Its Prey.

The manta, or blanket fish, is common to the warm parts of the Pacific. Around the Mexican penal colony on Tres Marias islands, not very far from Manzanillo, it is one of the most efficient guards for the prisoners incarcerated there. Not a man has ever been known to escape from this dreaded prison by swimming. No sooner does a human body strike the water than a school of these monsters appear, flying like giant bats through the sea. They throw themselves on the hapless swimmer, crushing him to the bed of the sea, and there suck the flesh from his bones with their powerful mouths.

The manta grows to mammoth dimensions, though the one which I saw, says a writer in the Wide World Magazine, was comparatively small, not weighing over two or three tons and not being more than fifteen feet across. The fish is nearly square in outline, the wings forming great right angles, which stretch out from the body, giving it a rectangular appearance. The fish swim by flapping these wings and are sometimes called "sea bats" on this account.

Mantas swim with incredible rapidity for what is apparently so meagrely a fish, and once they sight anything in the water, unless it be the speediest fish or shark, they overhaul it and simply close it, wrapping the entire blanket-like body around the unfortunate victim. Even with a sharp knife it is almost impossible to reach a vital point in the manta's body. For this reason they are the most dreaded by divers of all the dwellers in the sea, and the diver's life is not without its perils, take my word for that.

Piper Legends.

The Winds, who we believe, are the ancestors of the modern Prussians, are the center of many legends. The Pied Piper of Hamelin was a wood, so also was the piper of the Harz mountains, who appeared so many days a year and played unearthly tunes, and whose ever heard at once fell into a frenzy from which there was no escaping. All these piers and weird others assembled once a year at the Brocken, where there was a general carnival, the arch-bond leading the concert on a violin, witches rolling around and fiddling on the skulls of horses and the pipers adding to the bandish din the concert of their unbelly instruments.—Chambers' Journal.

BURDENS LIFTED

From Brainerd Backs—Relief Proved By Lapse of Time

Backache is a heavy burden. Nervousness wears one out; Rheumatic pain; urinary ills; All are kidney burdens—Daily effects of kidney weakness. No use to cure the symptoms. Relief is but temporary if the cause remains.

Cure the kidneys and you cure the cause. Relief comes quickly, comes to stay. Doan's Kidney Pills cure kidney ills.

Prove it by your neighbor's case. Here's the Brainerd testimony.

The story of a permanent cure. Mrs. John L. Nelson, of 309 Quince St., Brainerd, Minn., says: "About two years ago we procured Doan's Kidney Pills from H. P. Dunn's drug store and found them so effective that we publicly endorsed them. They brought relief from pains in the back, head and other distressing symptoms of kidney complaint. The lapse of time has only served to increase our high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Young Idea. In a certain school a schoolboy of tender years is said to have produced the following essay on the camel: "The camel is a sheep of the desert. It is called a bakteria because it has a hump on its back. The cannibal is very patient and will lie down and die without a groan, but when it is angry it gets its back up, which is called the hump. The shepherds of cannibals are called Arabs. When they live in towns they are called street Arabs. When the cannibal goes on a journey it drinks as much as it can to last for many days. Such animals are called acquiducks. Those that cannot carry enough are called inebriates."

Beer Slang in Germany. Even the serious Germans, it appears, have a rich and racy slang here are some examples that a writer for the Baltimore Sun lately clawed out of a German dictionary: Bierisch (beer fish), the little bits of cork that sometimes float in beer; Bierede (beer harangue), a speech made at a banquet; Bierbass (beer bass), a heavy, unmelodious masculine voice; Bierbruder (beer brother), a barroom acquaintance; Bierfeier (beer zeal), extraordinary and absurd enthusiasm.
